TAX NEWSGRAM 75-4

March 25, 1975

- Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File Delaware Individual Income Tax Return.

Effective April 15, 1975, Tax Newsgram 73-11, dated July 17, 1973, and Tax Newsgram 72-58, dated December 1, 1972, (which provided for automatic extension of time to file returns by filing a copy of the Federal extension) is hereby revoked insofar as it pertains to individuals. Individuals desiring an automatic extension of time to file income tax returns will be required to file Form 1027 (copy attached, and made a part hereof) entitled "Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File Delaware Individual Income Tax Returns."

The application must be filed with the Division of Revenue on or before the original due date of the return (generally April 30), along with payment of any balance due of estimated tax liability for the year. The automatic extension is for 45 days. Any unpaid balance as reflected on the return when filed will be subject to interest at 1% per month (or fraction of a month) from the original due date of the return until paid.
